Protecting Your Ownership Experience

Drive with confidence knowing your vehicle parts are protected

Repairs to your vehicle can be costly, and labor rates can increase over time. Now you can rest easier knowing you will have the added coverage for parts and labor on your recent repair using our Portfolio Edge Parts and Labor Protection.

What does Portfolio Edge Parts and Labor Protection cover?

Once the service part warranty provided by the Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) expires, your Portfolio Edge warranty will cover the cost of the installed covered part up to 4 years beyond OEM warranty expiration date.

Benefits of Portfolio Edge Parts and Labor Protection

- Provides additional coverage up to 4 years with unlimited mileage
- $0 Deductible
- Saves you money on future covered repairs
- Protects you against unknown labor costs

What parts are eligible for coverage?

Coverage is available on most mechanical, electrical and electronic parts sold to U.S. customers through authorized dealerships and repair facilities. Ask your dealership representative for more information.

What parts are not covered?

Some examples of parts not covered are: maintenance and wear parts, body, trim, upholstery, carpet, etc. See your agreement for a complete list of exclusions, terms and conditions.

Simple repair process

Covered repairs are done by the dealership using OEM parts and performed by certified trained technicians.
